SUBJECT.

Leave to Sir Charles Todhunter Private Secretary to H H the Maharaja of Mysore

To The Comptroller Mysore Gazette
No. 3580/C.S. dt. 18/4/32

Notifies the grant of 4 months' Combined Leave to Sir Charles Todhunter from the date of relief & the appointment of Rajyasabhabhushana Rao T. Narasimha Chetty as Private Secretary to H H the Maharaja on attending to his duties

The Maharaja

Sir Charles Todhunter, Private Secretary to H.H.

C 1311 Dt 1-4-32.

Requests that he may be granted privilege leave and furlough for 5 months from 26-4-1932 or the date of availing.

Flag "R"

The Comptroller's leave Certificate which has been received today is put up for kind perusal. It is seen that Sir Todhunter is entitled to only 3 months & 26 days privilege leave while he has asked for 5 months Combined leave.

Flag "X"

A copy of G.O Dt 25-7-1929 relating to the grant of leave to an Officer after his 55th year, is put up for reference. According to clause (b) of the order, an Officer after his 55th year can earn only privilege leave but not furlough.

Flag "W"

On a former occasion when Sir Todhunter was granted Combined leave for 5 months & 17 days (the leave Certificate under that only 4 months Combined leave was at the Credit of the Officer) the Comptroller was intimated that the restriction imposed by Art 150 A M.S.R was had been waived. If this is done on the present occasion, Sir Todhunter may perhaps be entitled to some furlough in addition to the privilege leave he is now entitled to under the existing rules.

Flag "Z"

If the entire amount of leave asked for is granted, it will extend up to 24-9-1932. Orders have already been issued extending the term of employment of this Officer for one year from 23-7-1932.

Confidential Collection 2-26 relating to the first appointment of Sir Todhunter is also put up. Kind Reference is invited to notes in paras 11-13 in regard to the Grant of leave.

Submitted for orders with previous papers.

(RGA 8/4)

Under the terms of his agreement, Sir C. Todhunter is entitled to leave under the Mysore Service Regulations. Officers over 55 years of age ~~are entitled~~ can ~~be~~ only one kind of leave (pr. leave) at 1/11 of period of active service. ~~So~~ So the Comptroller certifies that only 3 m. 26 days privilege leave is at credit ~~to~~ ~~up to 22.7.32~~ ~~the date on which his term~~ ~~or~~ was expected ~~to expire~~. ~~His term~~ The Comptroller is not yet aware of the further extension by one year.

As Sir C. Todhunter was entertained in Mysore Service after he attained 55 years, the term "leave according to M.S.R" may perhaps be intended to mean leave admissible in the case of ~~active~~ active officers generally and not only leave after Superannuation. Reference is invited to office notes in Collections H. V & O. on the point.

If approved the Comptroller will be asked to furnish a fresh

If the provisions of Article 150A, M.S.R., are not made applicable to ~~him~~ Sir Charles Todhunter and if he is allowed to earn leave under the ordinary rules though superannuated, he will be entitled to 7 months and 22 days furlough on half-average salary in addition to 3 months and 26 days privilege leave on 26th April 1932, assuming that he is granted one more year's extension.

In case he is allowed to earn leave under the ordinary rules without the application of Art.150A, M.S.R., definite orders of Government in the Financial Department to that effect are necessary.

Leave to Sir Charles Todhunter

I do not think Mal- Art 150 A can be applied to an officer who was employed under a special contract after superannuation. In this view he was allowed to avail himself of furlough when he last went on leave. Sir Charles also points out that the Article in question was framed after he joined Mysore service and cannot be allowed to operate to his prejudice.

He may be granted 5 months' combined leave, of which 3 m. 26 days will be privilege leave and the balance furlough on full average salary.

Submitted to His Highness.

Sir Charles Todhunter has applied for combined privilege leave and furlough for five months from 26th April 1932 or date of avail. The Comptroller has certified that he is entitled to three months and 26 days privilege leave and, if the provisions of Art.150 A of the Mysore Service Regulations are not applied to the case, to seven months and 22 days furlough on half average salary in addition. The rule in question applies to officers who attain superannuation in Mysore Service, and cannot be extended to cases like the one under consideration. In this view, Sir Charles Todhunter was allowed to avail himself of furlough when he last went on leave.

Considering the terms of his employment and the circumstances in which Art.150 A, Mysore Service Regulations was introduced, it would not be fair to deny to Sir Charles Todhunter the right to earn furlough in addition to privilege leave.

The leave asked for may, therefore, be sanctioned; three months and 26 days, out of this, will be privilege leave and the balance, furlough on full average salary.

I presume that it is His Highness's intention that Rajasabhabhushana Mr. T. Thumboo Chetty should act as Private Secretary in addition to his own duties as Huzur Secretary.
